OBITUARY. Mrs. Susan Lippitt Hill. (Contributed.)

The long, active and useful life of Susan Lippitt, widow of the late Edwin Hill, came to a close at her home 3 Division street, at one o'clock on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Hill was a woman of strong character, well read, well informed, and her cheerful optimistic spirit, made it a pleasure to meet her. Although confined to her bed for five months, she maintained the same cheerfulness, ever looking forward to the day when she would be able to leave the sick room and once more take an active part in life. She was the last of a family of seven children, the last to pass away before her being Edward Lippitt who died in Petaluma, Cal., three years ago. The late Narris G., and George Lippitt were her brothers.

Mr. Birchard was born in Norwich,
Conn., Feb. 9, 1861, the son of Asa
Hyde Birchard and Ann Maria Birch-Hyde Birchard and Ann Maria Birchard. He was a direct descendant of John Birchard, who came from Norwich, Eng., in the ship True Love in the year 1636 and settled in Saybrook, Conn. In the year 1659 John, with 35 others, settled at Norwich, Conn., and was the first town clerk and first schoolmaster of that town (now a city). He was also a contemporary with Capt. John Mason, who broke up the power of the Pequot Indians. It was from such ancestry as this that Frederick S. Birchard inherited the virile Americanism which was one of his conspicuous traits. He was also fond of music and, having had a musical training and being possessed of a good voice, used it freely.

The Goldsmith block, corner of Main and State streets, New London, was gutted by fire this (Tuesday) morning at 1.30 o'clock, causing a total loss of $100,000. The fire broke out in the bakery connected with the Gager-Crawford Co.'s store and burned up through the roof and then down through the remainder of the building. At one time the flames threatened the Crown theatre on Main street. A general alarm called out the entire fire department and gave the firemen a hard fight of an hour and a half before the flames were under control. It is the largest fire New London has seen in three years.

BULLET FROM REVOLVER at Backus Hospital After Suicide At-

Arthur Seymour, who is about 50 years old, despondent because he was out of work, attempted suicide Monday afternoon about 4.45 o'clock at his home No. 25 Union street, by shooting himself with a 35 esiting revolver. The bullet went in at the 5th rib, about two inches under the heart, passing clear through his body and coming out at the back under the ninth rib. The spent bullet was picked out of his clothing.

A lodger upstairs in the house heard the shot and hurrying down found Mr. Seymour stretched on the bed, where he had fallen. The revolver my en the floor. It had 64 constituent members at the beginning and had had in the 196 years a total of 887 members, while its present membership is 178.

Dustin Farnum in Feature Reel.

Dustin Farnum in Captain Courtesy, an inspiring five reel western drama, was the hig attraction aat the Auditorium theater on Monday. The greed of the savage Mexicans leading them on to arson and murder of innocent men and women for no other reason than to enrich their own pockets, formed the thread of the story which centered around the tiny Calofornia missions. The avenging of his parents' murder and his courteous treatment of the weak and helpless won for the son who was left in the smoking ruins of his home, the name of Captain Courtesy.

The other attractions on the programme were Mertin Lowe, Fixer and Love on an Empty Stomach.

Reminiscences.

Reminiscent remarks that made a particularly interesting part of the programme were given by former pastors, Revs. Cooper, McKean, Prindie and Holmes.

An address upon the topic, The New American, which dealt with church problems arising through immigration, was given by Rev. A. B. Coats of Hartford, concluding the afternoon service. Here on Motor Trip, Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Nickerson and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Nickerson of New Bedford motored here Saturday to spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Nickerson of Oak street. They will return to New Bedford today (Tuesday). Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Nickerson have just returned from an automobile tour through Maine and New Hampshire. At the evening service there were solos by Rev. W. F. Newton and Rev. G. R. Atha and the address was by Rev. Dr. Vichert, who spoke upon The Biggest Thing in Life. He said that there are, four things in life that are looked upon as big things, business, pleasure, culture and religion, but the biggest af them was religion. It was the biggest thing in life because it taught man how to behave, brought joy into life and brought man to a good end.

Poushkeepsie, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Delegates from practically every college and university in the United States, and some from foreign countries; alumnae from every state, and several hundred visitors, many of them famous in deucational circles, were in Poughkeepsie today for the fiftleth anniversary of the founding of Vassar college by Mathew Vassar. The celebration opened yesterday.

In the college suburb, Arlington, every home entertained from two to a dozen guests. A similar condition existed in the fashionable section of this city. The hotels and boarding houses were filled.

The announcement by President Mc-Cracken of a donation of $50,000 to a $150,000 fund, to build an alumnae hall, was received with enthusiasm. Mrs. Avery Cooley of Chicago and Mrs. Ellon Hooker of Greenwich, Conn, were named as the donors.
